

December 5, 2011

MYLC Notes

Walls, Floors and Bathroom Stalls

MYLC blankets Stamford High

“We try not to leave too many spaces uncovered,” said Liz Coughlan of the Mayor’s Youth Leadership Council (MYLC).

“We’ve chalked pathways and windows at Stamford High School. We’ve plastered bathrooms with messages. Walls are perfect (that’s Tiff Colacurcio, Rose Patino and Elizabeth Guerrero after posting one of two dating violence banners on December 1). And this week we’re going to tape messages on the floors of hallways. The great thing about all this is that the messages are never up for more than a week. We like to hit a spot and get out.”

The week of December 4 will be busy for MYLC. In addition to the floor messages that Liz mentioned, we have a photo shoot for our popular body art photos. Our all-member meeting on Thursday is about suicide. We lead a press conference about bullying on Friday. And we design holiday stockings on Friday night. The stockings will be given to the children at a local safe house where MYLC members volunteer.

We’ll get you feedback and photos next week.